STRUCK BY AUTO

On July 4th in Merrill the little son of Roy Sewell, a former resident of Rhinelander, was struck and badly hurt by an automobile. The following account of the accident is taken from the Merrill News:

"There was but one serious accident on the Fourth to mar the pleasures of the day. Roland Sewell, little son of Roy Sewell, was perhaps fatally injured when an automobile hit him when he was crossing Scott street. His father was with him at the time. The car fender hit the lad, throwing him heavily to the pavement, and striking on the back of his head. The car was stopped in an instant, and he was carried to the office of Dr. Morris, where an examination was made. It was found that he sustained a basal fracture of the skull, and up to this time he is still unconscious.

"The car was owned by Edward and Leslie Gordon of Wausau, who were here to visit the Sewells. It was unavoidable, and the blame is not attached to anyone."

CO. L MEN HAVE FUN AT CAMP

Fred L. Byerly, an Antigo boy writing to the Journal from Camp Douglas, tells of the unique manner in which the members of Co. L amused themselves while waiting for the call to the border. His letter reads in part:

"I just witnessed a good 'stunt' pulled off by Co. L of Rhinelander. It was the 'Rhinelander Cannibal'. A score of members of that company, stripped to the waist, and doctored in war paint, burlap sacks, gay colored paper and bones from the cook tent strung about their necks, marched through the camp headed by a savage looking 'chief' and bearing banners designating the squads, such as 'sheet iron squad', 'stone eaters', etc. It was perhaps the best of several such stunts that the various companies have presented. One good one a few nights ago was a band of 'Villains' led by a black dog bearing a large label marked 'Villains'. Each of these stunts is usually accompanied by an impromptu band composed of pans, a horn, drum, perhaps a fife and any instrument of noise that is available.

These things serve to keep up the spirits of the men who otherwise would be restless, or even more so than they are now. Boxing matches and baseball games by semi-professionals help to fill up the intervals between drills. Band concerts by the Marshfield band which, by the way, is the official second regimental band, either soothe or stir the souls of the men who like music, and there is a goodly percentage of the latter, judging from the size of the audience that gather each evening on the hillside 'behind the band company.'

MERCHANTS FORM NEW ASSOCIATION

A. Jacobson is in City Signing Members for Business Men's Organization

The Rhinelander Business Men's Association will likely be the name of a new organization of merchants and manufacturers of this city which had its beginning three weeks ago at a meeting held at the city hall. The new organization is to be affiliated with and work under the charter of the Wisconsin Retail Grocers and General Merchants Association and with the National Association of Retail Grocers.

The object of the association is to maintain an organization to correct the evils of the present credit system; to abate trade abuses and injurious practices; to harmonize trade relations between retailers, wholesalers and manufacturers and to co-operate in making Rhinelander a better and more progressive trade center.

Thirty-four cities in this state have already organized and all are receiving benefits for the money and labor thus expended.

A. Jacobson of Milwaukee, national and state organizer, was present at the recent meeting and in a convincing talk made it clear to his audience that Rhinelander was sadly in need of such an organization and it was his hope, before he left, to see one fully organized and in working order.

While the object of the association is to establish a proper credit relation between the merchant and consumer, it is not an organization to protect the business man alone. To the man who has made a record of promptness and honesty in his dealings, the field will be broadened and this man will find it easier to obtain credit.

Another benefit to the merchant as a result of co-operation will be protection from fake advertising and fake solicitations. It has been found in other cities that thousands of dollars can be saved yearly from this source of protection alone.

An efficient credit system among the merchants is only one object of the association. There follows a consideration of the boosting and pushing forward of every line of civic endeavor such as municipal efficiency, good roads, the acquirement of additional industrial facilities, beautifying of our city and the welfare of all who believe in enterprise and thrift.

Up to date those who have signed their intention of becoming members are:

CARROLL MAKING GOOD
George Carroll of Rhinelander is making an enviable record this season as pitcher on the Hurley team. In the last two games played he made two shut-outs and one home run. Forty-two strike-outs in three games are also to his credit. Next Sunday Carroll will pitch for Hurley in a game with Ashland.

Carroll intimates that there may be a chance for him to get back into the American association. His friends here would be pleased to see him in fast company again.

Mrs. S. G. Perinler returned Tuesday from a four weeks visit in Minneapolis.

CO. L DEPARTS FOR DUTY ON THE MEXICAN BORDER

Members of Co. L of this city are now on their way to the Mexican border where as a part of the Second Wisconsin Regiment they will do patrol duty. The troop trains are expected to arrive in San Antonio late Thursday. How long the men will be confined to duty on the border is not known. Their length of stay there depends entirely on future developments in the Mexican situation.

Over 1,300 more Wisconsin troops comprising the Second Regiment, left Camp Douglas for the border Monday. The first train left at 10 a. m. The second and third trains left at noon and 1:30, respectively. During the trip and for five days after they arrive in San Antonio, the baggage cars will be used as kitchens.

The provisions for the guardsmen made a large cargo of baggage. The provisions included 10,000 pounds hard bread, 1,800 cans corned beef, 501 cans corned beef hash, 2,406 cans pork and beans, 1,920 cans tomatoes, 283 cans jam, 750 pounds coffee, 2,000 pounds sugar, 576 cans evaporated milk, 1,000 pounds beans, 300 pounds rice, 6,000 pound potatoes, 5,000 pounds bacon and 550 pounds of prunes.

Before the soldiers entrained they received their pay, about $20,000 being disbursed by Maj. E. T. Markle of Fond du Lac. The soldiers were "broke" and they were glad to get the money.

Maj. Moore estimated that about 150 men from central and western Wisconsin were rejected in the federal inspection.

There are 1,216 men and fifty-five officers in the party. The first train is occupied by Col. W. M. Lee of Oconto and staff with companies from Oconto, Marinette, Rhinelander and Marshfield.

Maj. Warden has charge of the second division train which carries two companies from Oshkosh and companies from Manitowish and Appleton.

Maj. Warden has command of the third section made up of companies from Fond du Lac, Beaver Dam, Sheboygan, the machine gun company from Ashland.

Honorable discharges were given to 273 rejected men in the Second regiment. They were distributed as follows: Co. A, 18; B, 28; C, 42; D, 14; E, 16; F, 22; G, 20; H, 17; I, 14; K, 20; L, 17; M, 17; supply, 5; machine gun, 18; headquarters, 5. Of these eighty-two have said

LUTHER DEPARTS FOR CAPITOL CITY

E. L. Luther and family departed Wednesday for their new home in Madison. In conducting the affairs of his position as state supervisor of county agricultural representatives Mr. Luther finds that the capitol city is a more convenient place in which to reside.

Mr. Luther came to Rhinelander five years ago as Oneda county's first agricultural agent. He bears the distinction of having been the first county farm expert in the United States, as Oneda county was the first county in the United States to engage such an official.

During the time which Mr. Luther served in this capacity he accomplished work of untold value in the way of more and better farming in Oneda county. Noting the great good which he was accomplishing here other counties in the state began to gradually hire agricultural representatives. So many counties fell in line that it was necessary to secure a competent man to head this department and

PRESIDENT WILSON MAY FISH NEAR EAGLE RIVER

Muskies, pike, bass and other members of the finny tribe that inhabit the waters of the Eagle River region may soon have the honor of striking at hooks thrown to them by Mr. Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States. It is reported in circulation at the present time can be accepted as reliable.

According to the rumor President Wilson is coming to northern Wisconsin incognito the latter part of this month and will spend about two weeks at some summer home in the vicinity of Eagle River. It is understood that it would not be in the northern woods.

they will reenlist, hoping to pass a second examination.

While they are in the South the guardsmen will receive $125 a day.

Regiment Is Strong
Each train was composed of about eighteen cars states the Milwaukee Sentinel.

First were the freight and baggage cars, containing the men's traps, and in the first train two stock cars of the officers' horses. Horses for the orderlies and others will be obtained at the border. Then came the long line of coaches in which the soldiers were. In the middle of these were the two box cars which served as kitchens. Lieut. John West, Appleton, supervised the cooking for the men on the first train; Lieut. Gustav Schwandt, Oshkosh, on the second; Lieut. George Merkel, Appleton, on the third. In each of the two cooking cars on each train were two cooks and two cookees. The food for the men of two companies was prepared in each car. At mess time the food was carried into the coaches and distributed among the men.

According to Col. Lee, in command of the regiment, and by the stories of the men themselves, not a mishap had occurred on any of the trains during the entire day.

"The Second regiment quit camp the strongest numerically of any organization in the Wisconsin National guard, and I believe the entraining was done as expeditiously as could be expected," said Col. Lee. "Capt. Beveridge had charge of the loading operations and he executed his work efficiently."

Capt. Beveridge said: "On Sunday I chose what I regarded as the best three captains for the work in the regiment and with them went at the work of loading the tentage and other equipment. We had all this done by Sunday night. The men slept in pup tents. They were up before 5 o'clock Monday morning and the entraining went without a hitch. The paymaster doubled up Monday morning, paying off two companies at a time. That enabled us to get away promptly—thirty seconds before schedule time."

"We are faring better than the Milwaukee men," said one of the privates. "As soldiers' accommodations go, we are getting the best there is. We have no kick on the grub. The cars are as satisfactory as day coaches can be for day and night travel."

Mr. Luther, being deemed the best qualified for the post, was readily appointed. That his appointment was a wise one is easily seen by the results which he is accomplishing along agricultural lines throughout the state.

Much regret is expressed over the moving of Mr. Luther and his estimable family from Rhinelander and best wishes go with them to their future residence in Madison. Mr. Luther's duties will frequently bring him to this city.

BENEFIT DANCE

A benefit ball, the proceeds of which over the sum of $25 will be given to the wives and parents dependent upon Co. L members now on the Mexican border, will be held in the Armory, Thursday night, July 20. Danner's orchestra has been engaged to furnish music.

Here is an opportunity to enjoy a good time and also assist a worthy movement. There are in Rhinelander several families whose chief supporters are at the front and consequently financial aid would not come amiss. Show your patriotism by boosting for the soldiers' ball.

ROBS BARKEEPER; DEFIES OFFICERS

Insane Man With Big Gun Causes Excitement At Schlitz Hotel

Thomas Plant, 25 years of age and alleged to be insane, provided considerable excitement at the Schlitz Hotel on S. Brown street Saturday afternoon, when after forcing the barkeeper to hand over all the money in the cash register, about $84, he hurried to his room in the hotel and for over two hours defied all efforts of officers and citizens to capture him. A 38 calibre revolver was the argument which Plant used in convincing the crowd that he did not care for their society. With no desire to fight with the undertaker most of those gathered in and about the hotel were perfectly willing that Plant should have his own way. Finally after a long period of "watchful waiting" Dr. H. L. Garner, who has a slight acquaintance with the man, entered the room and by clever coaxing persuaded him to place his gun on the bed. When the ugly weapon was safely out of reach the doctor leaped upon Plant and after a brief struggle succeeded in overpowering him. The officers, who were waiting in the hallway, rushed into the room and soon adjusted the hand cuffs. Plant is now in the county jail awaiting examination by physicians. That he is insane there is little question and his commitment to an asylum will probably result.

About two o'clock Saturday afternoon Plant quietly entered the Schlitz Hotel saloon and advancing to the cigar case, which is screened from the bar, calmly ordered the bartender, Adolph Helbrick, to give him the money in the register, at the same time pressing his revolver into Adolph's face. It didn't take Adolph long to decide that to produce the coin was the wisest course to pursue and he acted accordingly.

Plant became the possessor of about $84, with which sum he rapidly retired to his room. So quietly was the hold-up perpetrated that two men playing cards in the saloon at the time had no knowledge of the crime until Adolph gave the alarm.

Chief Straub, one of the first on the scene, entered Plant's room but was confronted with the business end of his revolver and the chief desiring to be polite, concluded not to intrude. Plant, it appears, has a grudge against the chief for some unknown reason and threatened to shoot to kill if the officer didn't make his exit.

Sheriff Crofoot, Under-sheriff Rodd and Deputy Anderson joined in the attempt to arrest Plant, but all finally agreed that to take chances in approaching a maniac with a loaded gun, especially when the odds were all in his favor, was rather close to suicide. In this opinion they met with the hearty approval of the crowd.

Just when it was generally agreed that it would be necessary to starve the fellow out or call Co. L back from the front Dr. Cramer volunteered to see what he could accomplish toward making the arrest. Plant having visited the doctor's office Friday for professional advice the doctor felt that he would have some influence in pacifying him. Fortunately the doctor's plan worked successfully to the end that the crazy man was lodged safely in jail and the doctor was lauded as a hero. The money secured in the hold-up was returned intact to Arvid Mode, proprietor of the Schlitz.

Brooding over religious matters is believed to be the actual cause of Plant's mental break down.

WOMAN HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Herman Schlottke, her baby daughter, and a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph White, were hurt Wednesday forenoon when an auto in which they were riding, collided with a telephone pole. The accident occurred at the corner of Pelham and Arbutus streets, south side, and was due to the steering gear becoming unmanageable. The car was badly damaged.

Mrs. Schlottke was painfully bruised about the body and it is feared that she sustained internal injuries. She is confined to her home.

The two children escaped with only a few small bruises.

Mrs. Fred Perron left Monday for Chicago where she will take a six weeks course in one of the largest millinery establishments. It is Mrs. Perron's intention to engage in the millinery business here.

P. O. ROBBERS ARE AGAIN AT WORK

That the same gang of yeggs, who recently blew the safes in Elcho, and Brantwood postoffices, are responsible for the robbery of the postoffice in Marengo, Ashland county, Thursday night, is the opinion of the officers at work on the case. The robbers are believed to be making their headquarters in some remote part of northern Wisconsin and venture out to do a "job" whenever the coast looks clear. Hauling small town postoffices are apparently their chief line, as other classes of robbery have been rare in this section of the state for a number of months past. Chief of Police Maurice Straub of this city, believes that one of the yeggs visited Rhinelander a few days before the Brantwood robbery. The chief says he ordered a fellow out of town as a suspicious character and later heard of a man, who answered the same description being seen in Brantwood on the day of the robbery.

Within the last three months three northern Wisconsin postoffices have been robbed and as yet no arrests have been made. Where and when will the next "job" be pulled off?

WEALTHY BOY IS HURT IN WOODS

Ingrid Dahl, a young woodsman employed in a camp near Armstrong Creek, was seriously hurt Saturday when struck by a falling limb. His skull was fractured and he was injured internally. It is feared that he may die.

Dahl is alleged to be the son of a wealthy Minnesota farmer and land owner. Trouble at home caused him to leave and seek work in the northern Wisconsin pineries. He is about 22 years of age and is said to be a former student of Minnesota University.

The injured boy was taken to Minneapolis on the Soo line limited Sunday morning and is confined in a hospital there.

BARNES LOSES LIONS

Three of the valuable trained lions of the Barnes' Animal circus, which performed in Wausau recently, were suffocated at Waukesha on Monday evening, resulting in a loss of $10,000 to the circus. The animals were those working on the mounted platform when fireworks are shot off and were killed by the smoke and fumes. The circus is having no end of trouble this year.—Wausau Pilot.

The Judge's Advantage.

One of the best stories of Judge Parry, a famous English jurist, related to a feeble looking man who was rebuked for supporting a ridiculous claim made by his wife. "I tell you candidly I don't believe a word of your wife's story," said Judge Parry.
"Yes may do as per like," replied the man mournfully, "but I've got to."
It was once the doubtful privilege of Judge Parry to overhear the comments of two men against whom he had decided. "He's a fool, but he did
'is best," was the verdict of these disappointed suitors. "One might sleep under an unkindly epitaph," was the philosophic comment of the judge.

a human life was lost in the north woods in the fall of 1915; that no does were shipped out of the woods, and that while those opposed to the law claimed that hundreds of does were killed and left where they were shot, actually not to exceed 300—and perhaps not above 100—were unlawfully killed."
"Now come reports that show the real wisdom of the law—even if it were not justified by the saving of human life. Deputy wardens in northern Wisconsin are flooding the office of the commission with reports that more fawns are seen in the woods now than at any time in years. Heretofore usually from 3,000 to 5,000 does have been slaughtered during the hunting season. Last fall nearly all females were spared. As a consequence, Wisconsin will have a larger number of deer next fall than ever before."—Milwaukee Journal.

SUBSCRIBE TO SOLDIERS' FUND; A WORTHY CAUSE

(By L. B. Woodruff)

The National Guard of the State of Wisconsin and other states has by order of the President of the United States been called to the colors for active service and actuated by patriotism and a sense of duty the members of the National Guard, in responding to the President's call, not only offer themselves to the service of their country, but also forego their usual enjoyments and the means of livelihood of themselves and their families, and the sacrifice thus demanded and unhesitatingly accepted by the few, is for the benefit of all.

The burdens incident to military service should not be permitted to rest exclusively upon those who render it, but should, so far as possible, be distributed among the people, in order that those who respond to the call of patriotism shall not suffer from loss of employment and earnings, nor their families be deprived of support.

The Advancement Association of Rhinelander is submitting a plan to the citizens of our city whereby a sufficient fund of money will be subscribed, to meet the needs of those who will require this assistance.

A committee has been appointed consisting of three members of the association and two from the V. N. A., said committee to have full charge of all monies subscribed and to distribute same to those who are entitled, at such time or times, as in their judgment, it becomes necessary. The worthiness of the movement is unquestioned and should meet the hearty response of every patriotic citizen.

THE SOLDIERS' FUND

I wish to take advantage of the opportunity offered by the "Relief Committee" to aid in caring for such families of soldiers of the Wisconsin National Guard as may be left in want by the departure of the men for mobilization camps or the Mexican border.

For this purpose I pledge myself to give $..... each month for a period of twelve months. My understanding is that this money is to be used only for the aid of dependents whose needs are known to the relief committee and whose names will not be published under any circumstances. This pledge to become void in the event of the National Guards' return or of adequate state or federal action for the relief of these families.

I am willing to have the secretary of the Relief Committee notify me each month by mail of this obligation.

AID SOLDIER MEMBERS

Families of U. C. T. members enlisting in either Canada or the United States will receive financial protection from the order, members in Rhinelander have learned from the Supreme council meeting held at Columbus, Ohio.

Resolutions adopted at the convention provides that any members enlisting will be carried as social members, and will be entitled to the benefits accruing from the widows and orphans fund. While the insurance will be cancelled, they will still derive all the benefits of a protective fund for their families.

About 1,000 members in the service of the Canadian troops are now benefitting by this plan. No estimate could be made of the members in the United States whose families will be affected by the action.

BAPTIST SCOUTS ORGANIZED.
Rev. Wedge who has been for five years a scout master and has had wide experience in handling boys in San Francisco and Omaha, began his boy work here Monday with sixteen boys and will receive all the boys who desire to join his organization. There will be camping trips, baseball, track team, foot ball and a gym team in the winter. This scout organization will not be enrolled in the national organization but put on the work that the scouts put on and enjoy the same clean, manly sports. The poorest boy who has not the price of a regular scout suit will be as welcome as the flowers in May.

MAKING STORE IMPROVEMENT

P. L. Whittier is now making several improvements in his new store putting in cabinets for ladies' suits, coats and skirts. He informs us that he will give exclusive style on his ladies' ready-to-wear garments, selling only one of a style to a customer. He will add a fitting room and alter garments. Will also have an exclusive corset department where the ladies can talk corsets and fit them in private; this being a long felt want in Rhinelander. Mr. Whittier is one of the up-to-date young merchants that will boost Rhinelander by giving people service in the most modern way possible. Adv.
